Abbreviations: ABC, a black cat; DEF, doesn't ever fret; GHI, goes home immediately.
FIGURE 1 Although we encourage authors to send us the highest-quality figures possible, for peer-review purposes we can accept a wide variety of formats, sizes, and resolutions. Legends should be concise but comprehensive – the figure and its legend must be understandable without reference to the text. Include definitions of any symbols used and define/explain all abbreviations and units of measurement.

TABLE 1 This is a table. Tables should be self-contained and complement, but not duplicate, information contained in the text. They should be not be provided as images. Legends should be concise but comprehensive – the table, legend and footnotes must be understandable without reference to the text. All abbreviations must be defined in footnotes.

JKL, just keep laughing; MN, merry noise.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

Supporting information is information that is not essential to the article, but provides greater depth and background. It is hosted online and appears without editing or typesetting. It may include tables, figures, videos, datasets, etc. More information can be found in the journal's author guidelines or at `http://www.wileyauthors.com/suppinfoFAQs`. Note: if data, scripts, or other artefacts used to generate the analyses presented in the paper are available via a publicly available data repository, authors should include a reference to the location of the material within their paper.
